Shirking His Duty?

Editor of The Sun-Telegram: Having read Drew Pearson's article on the late Gen. MacArthur, and seeing that he knows so much about what goes on behind closed doors, I wouldn't doubt for one minute that Khrushchev knows quite a bit about our inner workings of the government after Pearson's sojourn with "Mr. K" on the Black Sea.

It would seem to me that Pearson would be doing his country a big service if he would publish the names of the people in our State Department and CIA who are Red-inspired instead of trying to tell the public what a nice man "Mr. K" is.

If a Russian defector says we have these Reds here in this country and he can name names, why is it that Pearson, knowing all, doesn't let his public know?

State Department Probe

Editor, The News:

William Mullen, in one of his fine editorials says it is a disturbing fact that the betrayal of our country has been kept a secret for a decade, until the death of Gen. Douglas Mac-Arthur.

How about the McLeod memorandum, still a secret in our State Department, giving the names of 800 security risks, 648 of them in the State Department, who had been involved in Communist activities? Who knows but what they may still be there. I believe I read somewhere, there are four in the CIA now.
I have been suspicious of the State Department and the CIA since China was sold down the river. And after the Bay of Pigs fiasco, test-ban treaty, wheat deal, etc., anyone putting two and two together can we see there is something definitely wrong. My arithmetic has always been bad, but not that bad.

And, as for sleepless nights, it is a long time since I have not gone to bed worried sick over the fate of our country. When it gets to the place where you are smeared for being patriotic and believing in God, it is about time we stay awake nights and worry.

When I wrote letters about the Roudesh Resolution to investigate the State Department a few years ago, one congressman wrote back saying not enough people were interested to do anything about it. Let us not have that happen again to the Joint Resolution 812 (HJ Res 812) introduced by Rep. John H. Ash-brook, Nov. 27, 1963. Write your congressmen now for a thorough investigation of the State Department. Wake Up America, it is later than you think.
